“Why Should I Become a Christian? (Or Should You?)”

Nov. 24, 2013
(Option 2)

Why do I fear death? (cf. 1 Cor. 15:54-57; Phil. 1:20-21)

- Fear of the unknown.
- If it were not unknown, we'd probably live differently.
- While we haven't seen heaven, we have the word of the One who has beaten death and made heaven.
- If you have an ongoing fear of death, you're not alone and it will be a growth point in your faith.

Why should I become a Christian?

- Because it makes good sense
- Because Christ will give you life, a full life (John 10:10)
- Because Christ can give you eternal life (John 5:24)
- Because you were made by him and for his glory (cf. Is. 43:6-7)

Should you become a Christian? (cf. Luke 9:23-24)
